Week 6

2022-02-14

Dr. Niall McMahon

These notes will be posted to Loop.

Good Morning!

- Thank you for submitting blogs, almost all on time.
- For the few that missed the deadline, remember that marks are deducted for late submission.
- No blog this week!
- Thank you for all the emails again this week.
- Additional material will be online soon.

Talking

- Last few weeks were much better, thank you.

Audio

- I'm planning some more audio summaries.
- Mostly to make contact with the small number of people who cannot attend in person this semester. They're not forgotten!

Sample Blogs and Additional Notes

- I'll post some more sample writing and/or writing of my own soon.
- Also some additional reading recommendations.

Quiz

- A very small number of people had legitimate reasons for missing the first quiz.
- I'll be in touch with these people individually soon(-ish) about re-sitting it.
- Hold tight until then.

Group Work

Labs

- It was good to talk to people on Thursday.
- We'll have labs again this Thursday with a similar format.
- I'd recommend that you use the lab time to get the project done. It'll take pressure off you!
- I hope to be there most weeks; use the opportunity to ask questions or talk to me if you like.

FAQs

- I'll add some of the good questions and answers of varying quality to the FAQs before Thursday.
- This will include the rubric for the grading.

This Week

Monday

- 10am - 10:50am: Lecture/tutorial.
- 11am - 11:50am: Lecture/tutorial.
- 5pm: Online material - no in-person lecture.

Thursday

- 9am - 11am: Labs. Group work and opportunity to ask questions. Also work on blogs or review notes.

Today

- Live blog reviews.
- Innovation #2: Climate and Energy.
- Quick overview about submitting blogs this week.

Lectures

Innovation #2: Climate and Energy

Submitting Blogs in Week 6

- No blog this week.
- Please create one .pdf with blogs 1 - 5.
- Submit this at Blogs 1 - 5 in the Blogs section on Loop.
- Grades for Blogs 1 - 5 may take 2 - 3 weeks, depending on things, so be patient! I'll keep you posted.
